Financial Status Reports (FSR)

Regardless of whether the agency's accounting system is on a cash or accrual basis:

- Period Expenditures = Cash Outlays
- Cannot include accrued expenses
- Obligations column – is for the purpose of reporting accrued expenses. Must be paid for within 30 days after the end of the grant project period.

Financial Status Reports

All FSRs must be supported by an “audit trail”

- Reported expenditures should reconcile to the accounting reports.
- Each grant award must have unique funding codes to track separately from all other funds.
- Any deviation from the accounting records should be explained in the “Notes” section.

Corrections to Financial Status Reports

Corrections should be made in the month the correction occurs

- if expense is misreported, revise the month in which the error occurred
- if expense was reallocated through an adjusting entry, include the expense in the month of the journal adjustment with an explanation in the “Notes” box of the FSR
- no line item should have a negative balance
- all supporting documentation for the FSR should be retained with the grant file. This includes General Ledger, time and activity records, pay stubs, complete invoices and proof of payments.

Statistical/Narrative Data

- Evaluate data requirements at beginning of grant project period.
- Review Performance Measures specified in your application.
- Implement procedures immediately to collect any data not already collected by agency.
- Make staff aware of goals and objectives for each specific grant project.
- Know which grants require agency wide data vs. grant project-specific data.

Statistical/Narrative Reporting

- Read Instructions / Follow Instructions
- Answer all questions – even if the answer is 0
- Narrative should address how the agency is meeting their goals, objectives, and activities as outlined in the approved application.
- Use narrative reports to brag about the project
- Retain all supporting documentation

Performance Measurement Tool

- Performance Measurement Tool (PMT) is the federal collection point for grant project statistical data.
- Must be submitted via the BJA Performance Tools website by the due date found in the Reporting Requirements document.
- Only JAG, SCIP, and VOCA grants are required to submit this report.
- The PMT website will generate an email notifying new Subgrantees with sign-on information for the website.
- Subgrantees can find the website address in the Reporting Requirements document.
- There will not be automated Grant Portal reminders for this report – make sure these due dates are noted on your calendar.

Performance Measurement Tool

- Please be attentive to what is included on the report, that it is complete, and that the data is accurately reported for each quarter.
- Report data for each quarter, not cumulatively.
- Back-up documentation to support the data and narrative must be maintained in the Subgrantee's grant file and be readily available when requested.

Performance Measurement Tool (JAG only)

- General Information: The “General Information/General Information Module” section will be identical for each quarterly report.
- Each report is unique to the Subgrantees project and depending how you answer the questions, other modules of the report will open for you to complete.
- If the Subgrantee revised the grant project budget, be sure to adjust the budget in the PMT.
- Please contact the Kansas Governor’s Grants Program regarding contact information or profile updates.
- The primary contact for the JAG PMT report is Kim Gerety, kim.gerety@ks.gov.

The screenshot displays the 'Reports' section of the Grant Portal. The interface includes a top navigation bar with tabs for 'General Info.', 'Budget', 'Attachments', 'Reports', and 'Submit'. The 'Reports' tab is currently selected and highlighted in yellow. On the left side, there is a sidebar with links for 'Change E-mail', 'Change Password', and 'Log Out'. Below these are 'Site Navigation' links: 'Grant Portal', 'Home', 'Application Portal', 'Instructions', and 'Contact Us'. At the bottom of the sidebar, there are links to '<< Governor's Grants Program home page' and '<< Kansas Web site'. The main content area is titled 'Reports: Download/Upload Offline Report Files'. It contains two sections: 'Download Blank Report Files' with links for 'Sample Off-Line .xls' and 'Download Most Recently Uploaded Version of Reports' with a link for 'Sample Report, 1.xls'. The 'Upload Offline Report Files' section includes a text box for the file name, a 'Browse...' button, and an 'Upload File' button. At the bottom of the main area, there are 'Submit Report' and 'Exit Report' buttons. The footer of the page reads 'Kansas Governor's Grants Program'.
